To: The embassy of Israel in China

I am pleased to invite Mr. Chen Meng, Post-doc Researcher, School of Earth Sciences and Engineering from Nanjing University to visit us at the University of Haifa, Israel. He will accompany Nanjing University's students that join our summer course: The Mediterranean: Past, Present and Future: Summer course on the Geology, Biology and Resource Management of the Mediterranean. The program will take place from July 31st – August 23th, 2018.

The University of Haifa sees this as an opportunity to expose faculty and students from leading Chinese institute to the excellence and vitality that is offered here at the University and throughout the city of Haifa.

I would appreciate your assistance in securing a visa for Mr. Chen Meng for the duration of the visit.

Kindly,

Tsameret Zohar
